

St. Paul's Board of Management

The Board of Management of St. Paul's is constructed as follows:

Chairperson:	Maeve Gallagher (Patron's Representative)
Secretary:	Morag McGowan (Principal)
Treasurer:	David Creed (Patron's Representative)
Others:	Caroline Donohoe (Parent Representative) Declan Bogan (Parent Representative) John Scott (Community Representative) Gillian Toole (Community Representative) Pauline McCarthy (Teacher Representative)

The Board of Management has a statutory obligation to ensure, through the Principal and teaching staff that:

- General education provision within the school is of a high quality.
- The needs of students are identified and responded to by the school.
- Appropriately qualified and competent teaching and non-teaching staff are appointed, subject to approval of the Patron and the Minister.
- School Plans are developed, implemented and regularly evaluated.
- Management and staff development needs are identified and provided within available resources.
- Parents receive full information on their child's progress.
- The school provides religious education for the children of the Catholic faith.
- The school complies with all rules and regulations prescribed by the Department of Education and Skills.