

My Communion Day

28th April 2012

By Jessica Mc Mahon

When I woke up on the morning of my Communion I was very excited. Best of all I didn't have to wait long. Soon I was there. I made my First Holy Communion in The Holy Trinity Church. My family thought I looked beautiful. I wore a ballerina length dress with a little waistcoat. I also wore a very long veil and lovely white shoes. My job was to bring up the wine. After the mass I went to the school for a little party. I chatted and ate sweets with my friends. Then I went home for my own party. I hired a bouncy castle for the weekend. Soon all my family and friends had come. We all played on the bouncy castle and we ate pizza. Yummy! I received lots of lovely cards from my relatives. My cake even said my name on it! My uncle Dave came and took some really nice pictures of my friends and me because he is a photographer. I ate lots of chocolate and I don't know how my stomach didn't burst! My friends stayed after the party and when they went home I went to bed. It was a brilliant day!

I celebrated my first Holy Communion on Saturday in the Holy Trinity Church in Ratoath. Father Brendan said mass for us. I looked so handsome in my Communion outfit. I wore a navy suit, a blue tie, a blue shirt and brown shoes. My job for the Communion was saying the first reading. We sang all our songs and prayers. Our teacher was very proud of us! After the Communion we had to take lots of photographs. We all went to the school hall for our Communion party, it was so much fun. Then I went home and had a big party.

My Communion Day

On Saturday the 28th of April 2012 we made our First Holy Communion in the Holy Trinity Church Ratoath. Each class had their own mass with Fr. Gerry Stewart P.P and Fr. Brendan Ferris. We were very excited because everybody had a special job on the day. My job was to help set up the altar. Everybody looked lovely in their suits and dresses.

Fr. Brendan told us a lovely story and showed us his Communion Prayer Book signed by his P. P. We all asked him to sign ours after mass was over.

We gave flowers to our Teacher for all her help and also to the choir who sang beautifully.

After mass we went to the school for a lovely party. It was a great day!
