

First Day Excitement!

There was a huge air of excitement around the yard of St. Paul's on September 1st 2011! Children and teachers alike, couldn't sleep the night before as they were awaiting their very first day in our brand new school!

Have a look at some pictures from the first day....

Jumping for Joy!

Smiles all around!

Big cheers for our new school!

Looking a little nervous, maybe?!

Wave to the new school!

Here's to continued smiles in our new school for many years to come!
