Look into our crystal ball & see the future of St. Paul's!

Miss Dooley's class are so excited about the new school building that already they are thinking about what the new school will look like in September! The children had a few interesting predictions....

This is what our school looks like today!

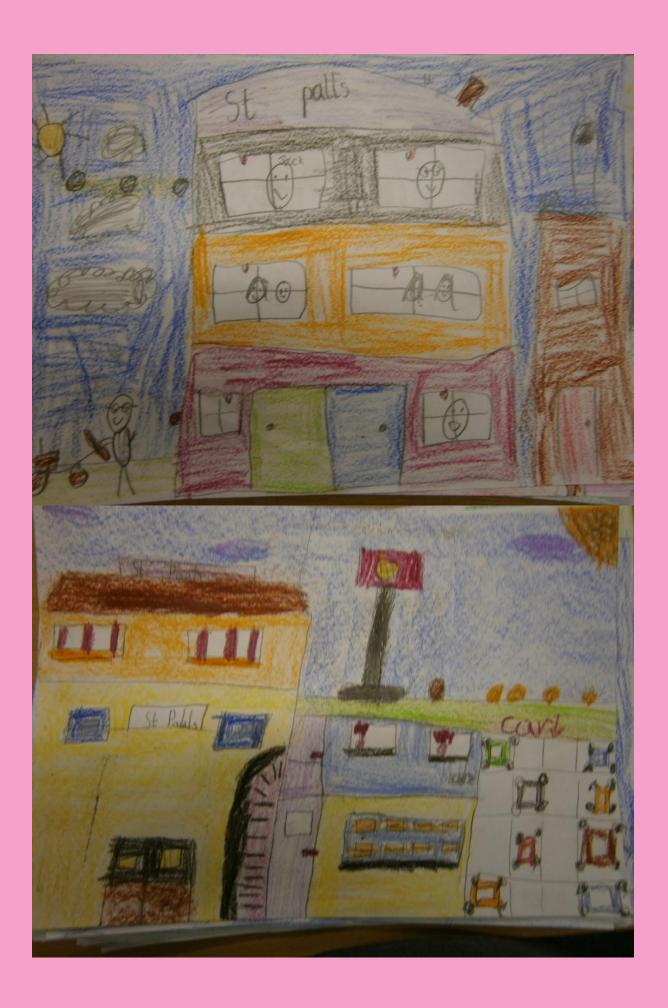

This is what Miss Dooley's First Class think the new school will look like....

So what do you think the new school for St.Paul's will look like? ©
