

Hip-Hop Heroes

Our dance teacher was called Aishling. The songs we were dancing to were called 'We Got the Funk' and 'Jai Ho'. We had to perform for Ms. Kiernan's, Mr. Harte's and Ms. McCarthy's classes. I felt nervous at the start but when Mr. Harte's class came in, I got used to it. My favourite song was 'Jai Ho'. At the end of 'We Got the Funk' we had to do poses. Mine were sword slash, kick, sword slash and punch. Ms. McCarthy's class also danced to the same songs as we did. I thought the dancing was very good fun. I like my dance teacher Aishling. I'd really like to do this again next year. All my friends said it was the best craic ever!

By Evan Eiffe

We have been practising dancing for six weeks. On Thursday 31st March, my class performed for other classes. Our dance teacher is called Aishling. She is a very good hip hop dancer. I was nervous at first but when I started dancing I really enjoyed it. I think my class performed very well. Ms. McGowan said our performance was excellent. My dancing partners were Emily and Piotr. We did our best. I have enjoyed the whole experience and I hope we do it again soon.

By Nina Kavanagh

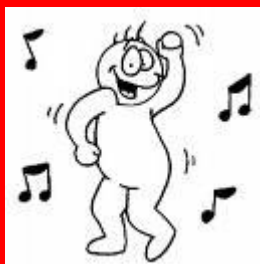

On Thursday 31st of March, we performed two dances. The first dance was called 'We've Got The Funk'. Our class had been learning it for five weeks. The hip-hop teacher was called Aishling. It was hard at the start but when I got the hang of it, it was easy. My partner for We've Got The Funk was Mia. Two weeks later, Aishling taught us Jai Ho. It was very difficult at the start. We performed for 1st, 2nd and 4th class. I was really nervous performing for 4th class. Miss Mc Carthy was taking pictures of us dancing. My sister was watching me. At the end we all took a break. We all said bye to Aishling because it was her last day.

by Rachael Doherty

On Thursday 31st of March we had our last session of hip-hop. We performed in front of five classes. We did two dances and we got a big clap. It felt like we were famous. Ms McCarthy and Ms Ní Chinnéide were the paparazzi. It was so much fun. We were dancing in pairs and my partner was Nicole. The dance moves were fun and fancy. Some of the moves were from movies. At the start they were hard to learn but after two weeks it was easy. Aishling was our dance teacher and she was very good. She knows all the dances very well. I loved it because we learned lots of good moves. Our teacher was very happy with us. Ms McGowan was there and Father Jerry popped in too. I felt amazing! I hope Aishling had fun. We had a ball!

By Annia White

